

Dorota successfully completed the Harvard University certified course!!!

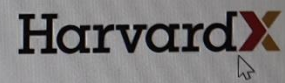

We are proud to announce that DOROTA BURDZIK, class IIIF4, successfully completed the Harvard University certified course "Contract Law: From Trust to Promise to Contract".

The course lasted three months and covered topics related to law. The main speaker, introducing participants to the secrets of, among others Prof. of court hearings and legal aspects of concluding contracts. CHARLES FRIED, distinguished lecturer in constitutional law at Harvard Law School and Columbia Law School (more: <https://hls.harvard.edu/faculty/directory/10288/Fried>)

After getting acquainted with the next court cases, the course participants also had the opportunity to solve them on their own and verify their "verdict" with the correct answer. The course ended with a test containing questions on the topic covered. Participants who demonstrated the required level of knowledge received a university certificate. It is worth recalling that as part of the STANFORD PRE-COLLEGIATE SUMMER INSTITUTES PROGRAM, Dorota has also qualified for the Legal Studies summer thematic session: Become a Highly Effective Critical Thinker for people who associate their future with legal studies.
